

February 2022

Hi! My name is

Francisco A. Sarría.

I`m Front-end Developer

pasionated for react.js/next.js

Currently pleased developing with React.js and Next.js and fascinated with all the JAMStack ecosystem.

About me

I am from Córdoba, Argentina and started building webs with html, css and php (just a little bit) back in 2011.

In 2012 start working with Drupal 7 for several years but never happy with it.

In 2018 I left the web world and in 2019 started with Wordpress.

In late 2019 I discovered the big javascript world: React.js, Vue.js, Angular, etc. and start studying development in Platzi (and in another webs and youtube) focus to get into the React.js world.
